Cultural Analytics Discussion: Choose two or three words you'd like to compare across the 19th or 21st century, research them, graph them in Ngrams (including screenshots), and write a 300-word discussion post about what the graph and your research tell you about your words over time. Include information about the settings you selected and what difference those settings make.